Christian Eschatology and Contemporary Culture

What Are We Waiting For? is a one-off, one day conference from Spring Harvest and King's College London for church leaders and members who are passionate about the place of theology in the church.

Featuring leading thinkers and theologians, the programme will unpack the major themes of Christian eschatology, including the Second Coming of Christ, the end of the world as we know it, eschatology in the Old and New Testament, the doctrines of heaven and hell and contemporary issues such as art, culture and the environment.
